

A Message from the Principal of SunEd High School of North Broward

Dear Students and Parents,

I would like to take this opportunity to extend a warm welcome to all students and parents who have chosen SunEd High School of North Broward as their educational home. We are truly honored that you have entrusted us with the education and growth of your children.

At SunEd, we are committed to fostering an environment where academic excellence thrives. Our dedicated faculty and staff are here to support every student's journey, ensuring that they not only achieve their academic goals but also develop into well-rounded individuals. We believe that education is a partnership between the school, students, and families, and we encourage open communication and collaboration.

As we embark on this academic year together, we are excited about the opportunities that lie ahead. We are dedicated to creating a nurturing and stimulating atmosphere where students can explore their interests, develop critical thinking skills, and prepare for a successful future.

Thank you for your trust in us. Together, we can make this school year a rewarding and transformative experience for our students.

Warm regards,

[Shirlene Weaver
